Case: 32406 Date: 3-24-06 Time: 1:00am

Investigators: Kim, Rich, Graham

Location: Fort Castillo San Macro

Weather: Very cold & windy

Legend / History of Place

Some of the most unusual occurrences include the "Battle Echoes" heard by visitors. By placing an ear to the wall, it is said you can hear the echoes of cannon fire and yelling. There is also telling of a young soldier that can be seen leaning on the outside wall facing the bay after sundown.

Investigator Report

We walked around Fort grounds because we did not get there early enough to go inside the fort. So we stay the night that way we can go inside too. We did not pick up anything but some orbs on the fort wall I did put my ear to the wall and did not hear a thing. The next day we got to go in the fort but still did not see much we did get a couple of orbs but that was it. We talk to one of the tour people and hear a lot of history of the place I did ask him about the ghost that they say is there? He said there was some strange stuff that happens there but that was it.
