

Kissimmee Paranormal Legend History Log

Case: 32406 Date: 3-24-06 Time: 12:15 am

Investigators: Kim Cirone , Graham Boer, Rich Cirone

Location: Hugenot Cemetery

Weather: Very cold, windy

Legend / History of Place

Legend claims: People have seen the ghosts of little children sitting on its monuments and the ghost of a man who appears to be searching for something. Locals believe this is Judge John B. Stickney, who had his gold teeth stolen by two thieves on the day he was buried. People have been taken Photos that show orbs and what looks to be a spirit in the trees.

Investigator Report

We had to walk around outside of cemetery it is locked at night open during the day. We took a lot of pictures . A couple of girls jumped fence into grave yard to take pictures but, they left when they saw Graham and Rich they thought they were police officers.