Legend / History of Place

Is now an historical museum. It began as a trading post, residence, and a restaurant and a gathering place for businessmen, travelers, and neighbors. Volunteers that worked here have seen the spirit of a Mr. Stranahan all over the house and in the gift shop the smell of Ivy perfume. Visitors that come to the house report of a warm type of feel they get like a warm blanket over them. Frank and Ivy Stranahan believe to still be in the house from time to time.

Investigator Report

Up stairs in Miss Stranahan room there was a smell of something sweet. The caretaker said it was her perfume I ask if he sprayed it there he said no it just comes and goes. Kim felt a warm feeling over you back like someone was hugging her with a blanket. Besides some Orbs that was all we found there. They said that there is seven ghost in this house.
